NEW BUSINESS

March Vouchers Paid:

Longstreth presented the March vouchers paid and offered to respond to questions. There being none, the Board proceeded.

Will Oliver/Liz Frawley's Bail Bonds:

Attorneys were present and advised Board that Judge Plegge had a death in the family. Still not sure where the Company stands. Judge Duncan requested a letter from Judge Plegge regarding progress, to be presented at the May 14 meeting. Smith made a motion to continue until May 14th, Morris seconded the motion. Motion carried.

A. Jeffries Bonding Company:

Board requested Alice Lightle further investigate the ownership of the Company and advise the Board of her findings at the May 14th meeting.

Lockhart Bail Bond Company:

Has two letters of credit, Longstreth advised the Board this would be very confusing. Duncan suggested that Mr. Lockhart be required to obtain one letter of credit. Duncan made a motion to continue until May 14th meeting, Reynolds seconded. Motion carried.

Board continued with hearing on Case#04-003, Board vs. Charles “Eddy” King, Jr.

Board adjourned to Executive Session.
